
List of Drinks and Wines

Wine, it's just fermented fruit in a bottle isn't it, so why do we get so excited about it? Is it a fond memory that takes us back with each taste? Is it the 5 taste sensations that get triggered with each different wine? Is it the terroir of your favourite region or is it experiencing something new?

What I have strived to create is a list to cover all these quims and more. I have explored the far reaches of the world to open you up to something new without forgetting the classics. I have some of the best up and comers mixed with exciting hidden gems and benchmarks.

The pursuit never ends and neither do the memories.

Aperitifs

Bank Place 14

A refreshing mix of spiced rum, ginger, lime mint and apple. Soon to be world famous at 23 Bank Place.

The Syracuse Americano 16

This cocktail was first served in creator Gaspare Campari's bar, Caffè Campari, in the 1860s. It was originally known as the "Milano-Torino" because of its ingredients: Campari, the bitter liqueur, is from Milan and Cinzano, the vermouth, is from Turin (Torino). Together with a small amount of soda water, this cocktail is an aperitif classic and a great choice in order to combat Melbourne's summer heat.

Fire Drum Martini 20

Premium hand crafted Vodka showcasing one of the most pristine environments in the world. Small batch copper pot distilled from 100% Tasmanian Barley and pure mountain water. Enjoy dry and stirred with a lemon twist for optimal enjoyment.

Kir Royale 15

First called blanc-cassis, France's classic pre-meal aperitif was first made by mixing the lesser white wines of Burgundy, the likes of Chablis or Bourgogne Aligote, with Creme de Cassis from the area, however, the drink is now named after Félix Kir (1876–1968), mayor of Dijon in Burgundy, who as a pioneer of the twinning movement in the aftermath of the Second World War popularized the drink by offering it at receptions to visiting delegations. The Royale Kir is simply made with sparkling wine instead of still and it is this that we offer to revitalise your tastebuds.

Champagne

There are many factors which attribute to Champagne's absolute domination of the sparkling wine market. The first to be mentioned has to be the ground in which the grapes are grown. The bedrock of limestone, that the monks in Reims many hundreds of years ago carved their cellars out of, is the key to keeping the soils of this cold, inland district warm enough to ensure that the Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and, with less difficulty, Pinot Meunier achieve perfect fruit ripeness whilst retaining the acidity and fruit characters required for the creation of some of the finest sparkling wines on Earth.

2010	E. Guigal Condrieu Viognier	Northern Rhône, France	175
2009	Gabrielle Meffre 'Laurus' Condrieu Viognier	Northern Rhône, France	232

Condrieu is an extremely small Appellation in the North of France's Rhône Valley. The area is exceptional as it is the origin of the highly temperamental Viognier grape. The house of Gabriel Meffre have created a stunning example of Condrieu by using their famed 275 litre 'Laurus' Barrels from fine-grained Burgundian Oak in order to present Viognier with the utmost elegance and refinement.

Some may ask "American Pinot Noir, what's the big deal?" However, with the Eyrie Vineyard's 'South Block' it is not the finest of American Pinot Noir which is represented as much as New World Pinot Noir in General. The 1975 vintage of this wine (only David Lett's fifth vintage) was awarded tenth place in the much viewed 1979 Wine Olympics, hosted by Gault Millau Magazine in Paris and further prompted Maison Joseph Drouhin from Burgundy to organise a re-match and test the entire range of wines against the 1975 Eyrie. Astonishingly, only the 1959 Drouhin Chambolle-Musigny was to out-shine the Oregonian Pinot and consequently Maison Joseph Drouhin established Domaine Drouhin in Oregon in light of these events. With the media stirred and the wine world shocked it can be said that David Lett prompted us all to address how Pinot Noir is made and where, at its very best, it comes from.

Super Tuscans

The Tuscan wine scene was transformed in the 1970's with the release of the first vintages of Sassicaia, the brainchild of the Incisa della Rocchetta family. Grown from two French grapes, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc, Sassicaia presented a true fusion of Italian style and french/modern winemaking technique. The wine caused Tuscan winemakers to question Italy's tiring DOC system, blending the native Sangiovese grape with Bordeaux varieties in new French oak barriques.

Ribera del Duero is the modern red wine miracle of northern Spain. Barely known until the late 1980s it now rivals Rioja as Spain's foremost red wine region. Situated on the banks of the Duero river (which once in Portugal becomes the Douro - the home of Port), this arid region becomes both extremely hot and incredibly cool from day to night producing wines with astonishing concentration and complexity. Vega Sicilia is the region's flagship estate and as such Unico exists: a reserve wine that is made from the local clone of Tempranillo together with Bordeaux varietals that were planted in the 19th century. Only made in the most exceptional vintages and aged in oak for longer than practically any other wine on Earth 'Unico' is a true staple to the Ribera del Duero: modern, radical, and stacked with personality!

Scarce Earth Project

The McLaren Vale is one of the most diverse wine growing regions in the world with differing soil types and sub climates throughout the area. The Scarce Earth Project encourages winemakers to produce single site Shiraz, free of overt winemaking influences, to demonstrate the uniqueness of each site.

What is Tannat?? Where is Madiran? Why is this all so seemingly unusual??? It is probably true that without Alain Brumont's perserverance the Tannat grape and its appellation of Madiran in Gascony, South West France, would be overlooked in the wine world. The monumental purchase and renovation of Château Montus in the 1980s has shown Brumont to be one of France's greatest ever winemakers as he succeeded in creating what is now one of Southern France's largest premium wine estates from the ground up. His radical idea of creating a world class, ultra premium, wine from the Tannat grape was inevitably realised as his flagship vineyard, 'La Tyre', defiantly shows with a perfect mix of dark savouriness with alluring characters that are quite unlike any other wine on Earth. A truly great wine from a great winemaker.

Retrospectively, few have heard of the small Lilydale winery in the Yarra Valley that is Mount Mary. There is no cellar door to speak of and their wines are incredibly rare, however, in this small corner of Victoria hide some of the finest wines in Australia. The late Dr. John Middleton established Mount Mary in 1971 with the aim to emulate the wines of Burgundy and Bordeaux. In my point of view he succeeded and his sons David and Sam continue to strive towards his goal with an even greater pace.
